

I CORINTHIANS 9:24-27

1 Cor 9:24-27 Do you not know that in a race all the runners run, but only one gets the prize? Run in such a way as to get the prize. Everyone who competes in the games goes into strict training. They do it to get a crown that will not last, but we do it to get a crown that will last forever. Therefore I do not run like someone running aimlessly; I do not fight like a boxer beating the air. No, I strike a blow to my body and make it my slave so that after I have preached to others, I myself will not be disqualified for the prize.

School year in a sentence:
Life is a race best ran with Christ.

The hope is that students will come away from this year:

Knowing they are running in a race, and to win the race they must run to Jesus. Putting all their energy and might into running towards their God and savior. Not letting people or lies sway them away from the prize at the end of their life. Working out spiritually to run with endurance. Trying to rely on the spirit and each other in the race. While also trying to get others to join the race. Not growing weary or weak of the race but continually going. To be prepared and understand to run the race of life and to run it with Jesus.
